FM Odyssey's 40th Anniversary Woodstock show available through Satellite to 800 FM stations

“What sets this show apart from other celebrations of Woodstock is that it brings to life pieces of Woodstock history that few people know.” - Fred Migliore

FM Odyssey has been going strong for 18 years and is heard weekly on 37 FM stations in the U.S. and abroad. Host/creator/producer Fred Migliore is pleased to announce the availability of another exciting FM Odyssey event, The Woodstock 40th Anniversary program.

Featured will be the legendary New York radio personality, Pete Fornatale. His new book, “Back to the Garden”, published by Simon and Schuster, provides incredible insight for this two-hour journey.

The show will include original interview recollections from many of the headliners who appeared at Woodstock, such as Alvin Lee (10 Years After), Richie Havens, Joe Cocker, Country Joe McDonald, John Sebastian, Joan Baez, Leslie West, and Stephen Stills.

The program also recounts the stories from the cast of characters who worked endlessly behind the scenes to put the concert together, and for those three days, overcame setback after setback to pull it off. There are highlights from an interview with Duke Devlin, the site interpreter at the Bethel Woods Museum that sits on the original Woodstock site, and of course, plenty of great music.

What sets this show apart from other celebrations of Woodstock is that it brings to life pieces of Woodstock history that few people know.

Look for this two-hour show to be available on NPR & public radio stations beginning July 27th.

The program will be broadcast on WFIT 89.5 FM in Melbourne, Florida, and streamed live on wfit.org between 10 and 1pm on August 16th from 10 to 1pm (eastern)
